SUCCESSFUL LUNCHEON

Despite inclement weather, seventy four people from Geelong, Winchelsea and surrounds, attended the Annual Casserole Luncheon in the hall last Wednesday (6th July).

A variety of casseroles were enjoyed before hearing the entertainment by John Bumford and his brother Graham present a musical program. This was followed by desserts and more musical entertainment. Graham with a rich baritone voice sang a selection of songs including musical comedy, (finishing with 'the spider song'). Graham was accompanied by John on piano. A great day was had by all!

Thank you to all who provided casseroles and desserts and a special thank you to the helpers who set up the hall on Monday, and cleaned up following the lunch.

The amount of $1240 was raised and will go towards payment for the recently replaced windows and block-out blinds in the hall

A Personal Note
